PARTICIPATION STATEMENT

Participants should be aware trekking, mountaineering and travelling in a developing country are activities that involve a risk of personal injury or death. As a condition of booking you must accept these risks and be responsible for your own actions and involvement.

Adventure travel requires an open and flexible attitude. You may experience extreme conditions, unpredictable weather and last minute changes to the itinerary beyond our control. Lack of acclimatisation to high altitudes could also be a risk factor. Our itineraries allow optimum time for acclimatising although it is possible that some individuals might be slow acclimatisers.

The majority of our trips visit remote areas where you are away from normal emergency services and medical facilities. In case of a serious injury requiring hospitalisation, it has to be accepted by you, evacuation could take up to several days and may impede your ensuing recovery. Helicopters are the most usual means of evacuation, however they are not always available or they may be hindered by poor weather and flying conditions.

INTRODUCTION

Everest Discovery trek is a leisurely trek to Everest region with visits to Sherpa villages and Buddhist monasteries. The trek starts with an exciting flight in a Twin Otter plane to the mountain airstrip at Lukla, from here we follow in the footsteps of famous mountaineers along the trail to Namche Bazaar. We are now in Buddhist Sherpa country where you will see colourful prayer flags, mani walls and monasteries along the way.

Our Everest Discovery trek takes you to some of the prettiest Sherpa villages and to Namche Bazaar, the colourful and vibrant heart of Sherpa country. You have the opportunity to visit the main monasteries of the Khumbu region at Tengboche and Thame.

The trail between lodges takes you through beautiful Nepalese villages with spectacular views of the Khumbu and Everest region. This trek is a moderate walk designed for the first time trekker which follows a section of the classic Everest Base Camp trail and then heads into the quieter Thame valley. The mountain scenery is stunning with a range of the famous peaks visible including Everest, Ama Dablam and Thamserku.

DETAILED ITINERARY

It is our intention to keep to the day by day itinerary detailed below, although there might be some flexibility due to local conditions or other factors beyond our control. If this is the case the trek leader will do everything possible to work out the changes to the itinerary in order to minimise your inconvenience.

Day 1. Arrive Kathmandu and join the tour at the hotel.

You will be met on arrival at Kathmandu airport and driven back to the hotel. Please provide travel plans on booking and we will arrange the pick up and transfer. A full expedition briefing will be given in the afternoon.

Day 2. Fly to Lukla (2,840m), trek to Phakding (2,610m) 4 to 5 hours walking.

You will be transferred from your hotel to the domestic airport for the early morning flight to the mountain airstrip at Lukla. This is a truly spectacular beginning to the trek as you fly over the rolling foothills of Nepal with the huge Himalayan peaks visible to the north.

On arrival to Lukla we meet our Sherpa guides and then begin the trek following the Dudh Khosi valley to the village of Phakding. Overnight Mountain Resort.

Day 3. Trek to Monjo (2,850m), afternoon option to visit Uche Chholing monastery - 3 hours walking.

From Phakding the trail follows the Dudh Kosi valley north, staying on its west bank and soon there is a good view of Thamserku (6,608m). Climb steeply over a rocky ridge then traverse high above the river to Benkar and a little further on you cross over a suspension bridge to the east bank of the Dudh Kosi.

In the afternoon there is the option to hike up Thakcho Hill behind the village for spectacular views of Numbur, Thamserku and Kongdi Ri. It is also worth visiting the Uche Chholing monastery near the village. Overnight Monjo Guesthouse.

Day 4. Trek to Namche Bazaar (3,445m)- 6 hours walking.

At the top of Monjo village we will pass through the Sagarmatha National Park entrance and on past Jorsale. After crossing the Hilary suspension the trail starts the climb to Namche Bazaar, there is a good excuse for a break half way up where Everest becomes visible for the first time. Today there are views of Everest

(8,848m), Lhotse (8,511m) Kwangde (6,224m) and the sacred mountain Khumbila (5,707m). Overnight Zamling Guesthouse.

Day 5. Day walk to Everest view point- 4 to 5 hours walking.

This is the first of two essential acclimatising days in Namche Bazaar to help your body adapt to the gain in altitude. Today we take a morning walk up above Namche to the Everest view point. On the way back we have lunch next to the interesting Sherpa Culture & Everest Mountaineering Museum which is well worth a visit. After lunch we return to the lodge and in the afternoon you can relax or explore Namche. Overnight Zamling Guest House

Day 6. Trek to Thame (3,801m)- 5 to 6 hours walking.

Today we follow the Bhote Khosi in a north west direction, the trail passes some picturesque mani stones on the way to Thame. It contours around a hill and passes through a forest to Phurte with Laudo gumpa on the hill above.

After crossing a ridge marked by a chorten you trek into another side valley to the village of Thamo. Climb past the Khari monastery to the fields of Thomde and to a few teashops at Somde. The scenery is splendid with views of Tesi Lapcha and the peak of Phacharmo above it.

From Somde the trail traverses high along the side of the valley, then makes a sharp descent to a bridge high above the river, once over the trail climbs steeply to Thame. To the south there are views of Teng Kangpoche (6,500m) and Kwangde (6,500m) and to the north lies the important trading pass of the Nangpa La which leads into Tibet. In the afternoon it is well worth visiting the important monastery above Thame.

Day 7. Trek to Khumjung (3,791m)- 6 hours walking.

After returning to Thamo, cross the Kyajo Khola and take the high trail which bypasses Namche and climbs to the airstrip at Syangboche past Khunde to Khumjung. Khumjung is a beautiful Sherpa village with stone houses and lies at the foot of the sacred peak of Khumbila.

Day 8. Trek to Deboche (3,770m)- 5 hours walking.

From the village of Khumjung the trail descends through moss covered rhododendron forest with impressive views of Ama Dablam, Kangtega, Nuptse, Lhotse and Everest. After crossing the bridge over the river at Phunki Tenga we start the climb through forest to Tengboche. The main monastery of the Khumbu is located here and is well worth visiting. Our lodge at Deboche is 20 minutes walk away from Tengboche. Overnight Rivendell Lodge.

Day 9. Spare day for exploring the area.

There is an optional day trek to Pangboche and back for the night to Deboche or you can take a short to Tengboche to visit the monastery.

Day 10. Return to Namche Bazaar- 6 to 7 hours walking.

After a climb through the rhododendron forest to Tengboche we descend to the river at Phunki Tenga. After crossing the bridge there is a steady ascent then the trail contours to Namche Bazaar.

Day 11. Return to Lukla- 8 to 9 hours walking.

From Namche we descend to the bridge and then onto Monjo where we continue the descent of the Dudh Khosi valley through the villages of Phakding, Ghat and Cheplung. At Chaurikharka we start ascending the final hill of the trek to reach Lukla. On getting to the Sunrise Lodge you can relax and enjoy your last evening with the Sherpa guides and wonderful porters.

Day 12. Fly to Kathmandu.

If the weather is fine in Lukla then we will get an early morning flight back to Kathmandu. The rest of the day you are free to relax in Kathmandu or to go shopping, normally groups will meet up in the evening for a farewell meal. Overnight hotel.

Day 13. Sightseeing in Kathmandu.

- Today we explore Kathmandu with a local guide, the day is flexible depending on what you would like to see but the most popular places generally are:
- Pashupatinath is a Hindu temple with burning ghats on the banks of the Bagmati river.
- Swayambhunath, also known as the monkey temple, is climbed by a long set of steps and has great views of Kathmandu.

- Boudhanath stupa has many traditional gompas hung with strings of multi coloured prayer flags, it attracts many Sherpas and Tibetans for the circumambulations of the stupa (koras).
- Durbar square, which is one of the old capitals of the Kathmandu valley, has a blend of Hindu and Buddhist temples.

Day 14. Fly back home.

Transfer to Kathmandu airport for the flight back home. End of trip

PRACTICAL INFORMATION

ALTITUDE AND ACCLIMATISATION

Our Everest Discovery itinerary has been designed for gradual acclimatisation to take place, take a look at the altitude profile for the itinerary below:

There are ways of helping the acclimatisation process, as described below:

- Walk slowly: there is plenty of time included in the itinerary so there is no need to rush, go at your own pace and enjoy the incredible views!
- Drink lots of water: it is easier for your body to acclimatise when hydrated so drink water and avoid coffee, tea and alcohol.
- Consider taking diamox (acetazolamide): before using this drug we recommend consulting a doctor and thoroughly researching the pros and cons.

For further information we suggest you take a look at the following websites:

Hotel Ambassador is located in Lazimpat near the diplomatic enclave. For more information on Hotel Ambassador please take a look at their website <http://www.acehotelsnepal.com/ambassador/>

There are store rooms at all of these hotels where you can leave luggage not required while on trek. There is also a security safe at these hotels for storage of valuables.

LUKLA FLIGHT

Please note that flights to and from Nepal's Short Take-Off & Landing ("STOL") mountain airstrips such as Lukla are dependent on the weather. Delays often happen if there is poor visibility or high winds.

If you have to wait in Kathmandu at the beginning of the trip due to delays in flying into a STOL mountain airstrip the cost for your overnight accommodation in Kathmandu is not included so you will have to pay extra for this.

In all of our itineraries visiting areas with STOL mountain airstrips such as Everest region we include one extra day in Kathmandu at the end of the trip in case of delays flying back. If you are delayed longer than this our office in Kathmandu can help reschedule your international flights however there is likely to be a fee charged by the airline for this. You will also have to pay for all of your additional costs incurred in Kathmandu as a result of the delay such as accommodation and meals.

FOOD

In Kathmandu there is a wide range of excellent restaurants, some of the more popular ones are: K Too Steak House, Everest Steak House, Rumdoodles, Fire and Ice, La Dolce Vita, Mike's Breakfast and New Orleans. Breakfast is provided each morning by the hotel.

While on the trek, the lodges provide good quality food in sufficient quantities. For breakfast you will get porridge, cereal, toast or chapattis, omelette and a range of hot drinks. On arrival at the lodge in the afternoon you will be given tea and biscuits and a three course meal will follow later in the evening.

CLIMATE

The traditional trekking season in Nepal is late September to May, with October and November generally recognised as having the best weather. Spring is also a popular time of year with warmer weather and the advantage of seeing spring flowers and rhododendrons in bloom.

This trek will have a wide range of temperatures depending on the altitude and the time of day. In the mountains between 1,000m and 3,500m the nights will be cool, normally around 5°C, and during the day temperatures sometimes rise to 25°C. At higher altitudes temperatures range from about 15°C to -20°C.

CLOTHING AND EQUIPMENT

A list of suggested clothing and equipment for the Everest Discovery trek has been included in Appendix II below. This is a comprehensive list and experienced trekkers will often take only a selection of these items based on what has worked in the past. It is worth pointing out that you will need a sleeping bag for this trip although you can arrange to rent one in Kathmandu.

If you do not have the clothing and equipment contained in this list then a good option might be to rent from the UK. Trek Hire is a company that rents out high quality items at competitive prices which would save you the expense of buying. The link to their website is <http://www.trekhireuk.com/>

Alternatively if you are going to buy then please contact the office for the Cotswold Outdoor promo code that entitles you, as a client of The Mountain Company, to a 15% discount in their stores and online.

Each trekker should bring one backpack for items required during the day. Your day backpack will contain items such as warm clothes, jacket, camera, water bottles, personal first aid kit and snacks.

The rest of your personal equipment packed in a duffel bag or backpack will be carried by a porter. The maximum weight allowance is 15kgs. Please ensure that your bag is marked clearly on the outside for easy identification.

VISA REQUIREMENTS

All foreigners require a visa for entry into Nepal. It is your responsibility to obtain the entry visa. You can get from a Nepalese embassy overseas or on arrival in Nepal. Most people will obtain their visa on arrival to Kathmandu airport.

You will need one passport photo and the following fees dependent:

15 days USD$25 or equivalent convertible currency

30 days USD$40 or equivalent convertible currency

90 days USD$100 or equivalent convertible currency

VACCINATIONS AND MEDICAL

You should obtain professional advice from a travel clinic or your local GP about which vaccinations to have before you arrive in Nepal. A dental check-up is a good idea as there will be no dental facilities while on the trek.

We bring a comprehensive first aid kit from UK (Life Systems Mountain Leader) plus high altitude medicine, antibiotics and other medicines.

CULTURAL CONSIDERATIONS

For those of you who are visiting Nepal for the first time we have provided some cultural information to help you fit in and feel at ease:

- The dress code is important for both men and women. Men and women should wear trousers rather than shorts while trekking.
- There are many hot springs, rivers and lakes where it is pleasant to take a dip, it is fine for men to go bare-chested while bathing but they should not go nude. Women should try and be as modest as possible in these situations.
- Hindus are concerned about the ritual pollution of food when it is touched by someone outside their caste or religion. Therefore, do not touch any cooked foods on display and when drinking from a container used by others avoid touching your lips to it. Do not eat food with your left hand and make sure you only give or receive food with your right hand.

- Shoes are considered degrading so keep them on the ground and remove them before putting your feet on anything. If you enter a Nepali house follow the example of your host in deciding whether to remove your shoes but on entering a temple or monastery you should definitely remove them.
- You will pass Buddhist mani walls, chortens, and stupas along the trek and to follow local traditions you should pass them on your right.
- When visiting a monastery or gompa it is customary to give a donation for its upkeep.
