K2 BASE CAMP AND GONDOGORO LA

K2, the second highest mountain in the world
HIGHLIGHTS

- A must do trek for mountain connoisseurs and rightly listed as one of the world’s Top 5 Mountain walks.

- A spectacular trek up the Baltoro glacier, over the challenging Gondogoro La pass and down the beautiful Hushe valley.

- Views of K2, Broad Peak, Masherbrum, GI & II, Trango towers and Leila peak among many others.

- There is an option to do the K2 & Concordia trek and descend back down the Baltoro rather than go over the Gondogoro La pass.

REASONS TO CHOOSE THE MOUNTAIN COMPANY FOR K2 & GONDOGORO LA

- The Mountain Company has a long track record of organising treks in Pakistan, our groups have visited Pakistan every year since 2004. We have had groups successfully crossed the Gondogoro La pass on five previous occasions in August 2004, 2006, 2008, 2010 and 2012.

- If we end up driving to Skardu we plan to take a road that avoids the more volatile regions on the Karakoram Highway (KKH) near Besham, this new route goes from Mansera to Balakot, Naran and Chilas. If the new road is not open then we will take the original KKH road.

- We designed an itinerary based on this first-hand experience which is the best in terms of acclimatisation, safety and enjoyment.

- We bring a satellite phone for logistical, safety and personal use.

- A USD$10,000 bond is paid to Askari Aviation before the trek so that, in the unlikely case a helicopter rescue is required, they will fly as soon as we contact them on the satellite phone. If the bond has not been paid it will only take off when the money has cleared through their bank account.
(which can take a few days) even if you have comprehensive insurance coverage.

- We work with the same local trekking crew each year, our local trekking guides are very experienced and live in the Northern Areas of Pakistan.

- There will be a range of tasty meals for breakfast, lunch and supper. We bring along fresh vegetables and meat (chickens and a goat). We also bring along a supply of chocolate bars and Pringles. For breakfast every morning we provide fresh coffee from our Bialetti Moka coffee machine.

- We bring a comprehensive first aid kit from UK (Life Systems Mountain Leader) plus high altitude medicine, antibiotics and other medicines. There will also be a portable altitude chamber (PAC or Gamow bag).

- Everyone’s blood oxygen saturation and heart rate is measured twice daily using a pulse oximeter in order to monitor how the group is adjusting to the altitude.

- We use good hotels throughout the trip: Islamabad (private guesthouse) and in Skardu (K2 Motel).

- We have a limited number of “Harness packs” for rent, this includes harness (Black Diamond Alpine BOD), figure of eight abseil device with a large carabiner, three screwgate carabiners, Petzl handle ascender, two slings and prussik cord.

PARTICIPATION STATEMENT

Participants should be aware trekking, mountaineering and travelling in a developing country are activities that involve a risk of personal injury or death. As a condition of booking you must accept these risks and be responsible for your own actions and involvement.

Adventure travel requires an open and flexible attitude. You may experience extreme conditions, unpredictable weather and last minute changes to the itinerary beyond our control. Lack of acclimatisation to high altitudes could also be a risk factor. Our itineraries allow optimum time for acclimatising although it is possible that some individuals might be slow acclimatisers.

The majority of our trips visit remote areas where you are away from normal emergency services and medical facilities. In case of a serious injury requiring hospitalisation, it has to be accepted by you, evacuation could take up to several days and may impede your ensuing recovery. Helicopters are the most usual means of evacuation, however they are not always available or they may be hindered by poor weather and flying conditions.

INTRODUCTION

This is considered to be one of the world’s great treks with breathtaking scenery unsurpassed anywhere else in the high mountains. This is a challenging trek to Concordia and K2 Base Camp followed by crossing the technical Gondogoro La pass.

The trekking route is lined with rugged mountains all the way from Askole, the last village in the Braldu gorge, to Concordia. On our walk up the Baltoro glacier we will see the Trango Towers, Masherbrum, K2 and Broad Peak among many others. Concordia has been described as the “Throne Room of the Mountain Gods” for its unique 360° panorama of 7,000m mountains and impressive views of K2.

After some time exploring K2 and Broad peak Base Camps, we start the challenging trek out over the Gondogoro La and descend down the beautiful Hushe valley. The route up and down the Gondogoro La is maintained by a local team from Hushe who fix the ropes for trekkers.

If you think the crossing of the Gondogoro La is going to be too challenging for you, we offer an option whereby you can descend the Baltoro. If you are interested please ask for further details.

DETAILED ITINERARY

It is our intention to keep to the day by day itinerary detailed below, although there might be some flexibility due to local conditions or other factors beyond our control. If this is the case the trek leader will do everything possible to work out the changes to the itinerary in order to minimise your inconvenience.

Day 1. Arrive Islamabad.
You will be met at the airport on your arrival to Islamabad. Please provide travel plans on booking and we will arrange the pick-up and transfer. A full trek briefing will be given in the afternoon. Overnight at Chancery Guesthouse (B).

Day 2. Fly to Skardu.
Today we will try to fly to Skardu in Gilgit-Baltistan, if the flight is cancelled then we will spend the night in Islamabad and drive Karakoram Highway (“KKH”) tomorrow. Overnight at K2 Motel in Skardu (B,L,D) or Chancery Guesthouse (B).

Day 3. Drive KKH to Chilas (if flew to Skardu yesterday then we explore the town today).
If the flight was cancelled on Day 2 then we will start driving KKH. Overnight Shangri La hotel in Chilas (B,L,D).

If we flew to Skardu on Day 2 then this is a day to explore Skardu, it is well worth going into town to see explore the bazaar and visiting the Skardu fort which has a good view of the Indus river. We might be lucky and get to watch a game of polo in the evening. Overnight at K2 Motel in Skardu (B,L,D).
Day 4. Drive to Skardu on KKH (if flew on Day 2 then this is buffer day).

Day 5. Skardu to Askole (3,050m) by jeep – 7 hours driving, 1 hour trekking.
An exciting drive on a winding jeep trail in the arid landscape past villages with fertile terraces and apricot trees, Askole is the last village we will see for a few weeks. Overnight camping (B,L,D).

Day 6. Trek to Korofong (3,100m) – 4 to 5 hours walking.
We follow a trail next to the Braldu river and, once passed the snout of the Biafo glacier, we arrive at the green oasis of Korofong. Given that we will be in camp by lunchtime we can spend the afternoon relaxing by the river, and also do a short acclimatisation walk if we wish.

If the sun is out then this can be a very hot day with temperatures often approaching 40 degrees. It is important to bring plenty of water (at least three litres), wear a sun hat and apply plenty of sun cream. Overnight camping (B,L,D).

Day 7. Trek to Bardumal (3,305m) – 7 hours walking.
From Korofong we follow the path up a side valley and cross the river by a good bridge (rather than the old trolley system or “jhola” as used in the past). We then walk for another half an hour or so to reach the Jhola Camp. The views are impressive with Bakhor Das (5,809m) and Paiju Peak’s needles in the distance. From Jhola as continue onto Bardumal campsite (also known as Skambong Scok). Overnight camping (B,L,D).

Day 8. Trek to Paiju (3,380m) – 3 to 4 hours walking.
After an early start from Bardumal we will arrive at Paiju mid-morning. The path is quite loose in places and again it is likely we will have to take boots off where the river has flooded the path in a few places. Paiju is a green oasis under the shadows of Paiju Peak (6,611m). From this camp we have the first views of the immense Baltoro Glacier. Overnight camping (B,L,D).

Day 9. Trek to Khoburtse (3,760m) – 6 to 7 hours walking.
After an hour we will walk up onto the Baltoro glacier for the first time. The path on the glacier is pretty good although care has to be taken as the moraine on the surface is uneven (trekking poles are useful from here on).

We will probably stop for lunch at the old campsite at Lilligo. After this break we cross below the snout of the Lilligo Glacier and then get back on to the Baltoro and walk up and down several moraine ridges before arriving at the Khoburtse campsite. Overnight camping (B,L,D).
Porters walking on the Baltoro glacier (Menno Boermans)

Day 10. Trek to Urdukas (4,130m)—4 hours walking.
During the walk today there are great views of Trango & Cathedral spires and Uli Biaho and Bial mountains. It is a short day but quite hard work as we walk up the undulating moraine and gaining height all the way. The campsite at Urdukas is very impressive with views over the Baltoro and to the dramatic rock spires on the opposite side of the glacier. Overnight camping (B,L,D).

Day 11. Rest day at Urdukas (4,130m)
We have found in the past that taking a rest day at Urdukas has worked well, the advantages of spending an extra night here are:

- it helps the acclimatisation process and has proved to more effective than a rest day at Paiju (the traditional place for a rest day after only three trekking days).
• there is a pleasant walk behind the campsite through grassy slopes full of alpine flowers. Climbing high & sleeping low is the best way to help the acclimatisation process.

• this is the last campsite on grassy slopes off the main glacier, it also has facilities for washing and cleaning.

• western leader will lead a training session in the afternoon explaining in detail the techniques for crossing the Gondogoro La.

Day 12. Urdu kas to Goro II (4,250m) – 6 to 7 hours walking.
The trail on the Baltoro goes past the Yermanandu Galcier, which flows from Masherbrum, and there are views of Muztagh (7,270m), Masherbrum (7,800m) and Gasherbrum IV at the head of the Baltoro and Concordia. The campsite at Goro II is on the glacier where ledges have been levelled out for the tents. Overnight camping (B,L,D).

Day 13. Goro to Concordia (4,600m) – 5 to 6 hours.
Today we reach Concordia where the Baltoro, Abruzzi and Godwin Austen glaciers converge, within a radius of 15 kilometres there are an incredible 41 peaks over 6,500m with 4 over 8,000m. The 360 degree panorama is simply incredible and has to been seen. Overnight camping (B,L,D).

Day 14. Concordia to K2 and Broad Peak BCs and return – 10 to 12 hours walking.
This is a long day which typically takes 6 hours to K2 Base Camp and 5 hours for the return to Concordia. Some people might prefer to walk to Broad Peak Base Camp rather than walk all the way to K2 Base Camp. Overnight camping (B,L,D).
Day 15. Concordia rest day.
You can go on further exploration walks today around Concordia or spend a day in camp enjoying the views. Overnight camping (B,L,D).

Day 16. Concordia to Ali camp (5,000m) –6 to 7 hours walking.
From Concordia there are several moraine ridges to scramble over to reach the Vigne Glacier which is flatter with fewer crevasses. If it is a clear day we will get some spectacular views of K2 and the other mountains around. Overnight camping (B,L,D).

Day 17. Ali Camp and over the Gondogoro La pass (5,600m) to Khuspang– 10 or 11 hours walking.
This is a tough day but the views from the top of the pass really make it worthwhile. All four 8000’ers are visible in one direction and the other way looks down the Hushe valley with the beautiful Leila peak.

We will start early, probably about 12 o’clock, to minimise the risk of rockfall on the descent down the Hushe side of the pass. If the snow conditions are good and the trail has already been broken the pass can be ascended quite quickly (in about 5 hours).

Depending on snow conditions it may be necessary to rope up for the crossing of the glacier before getting to the base of the pass.

You will need crampons and ice axes on the Vigne side of the pass. There are several sections with fixed ropes in place which can be used as a handrail. It is also best practice to clip a karabiner and sling onto the rope for safety.

The Hushe side of the pass can be a tricky descent although there are fixed ropes in place at the top. The slope starts at a sustained 50 degrees on snow and finishes on loose scree towards the bottom. On reaching the green oasis of Khuspang, you can put your feet up and relax remembering the excitement of the day. Overnight camping (B,L,D).

!Relaxing at Khuspang with Leila peak behind (Menno Boermans)

Important note! The crossing of the Gondogoro La is dependent on good weather and conditions on the approach to the pass. If it is not possible to safely ascend the pass the group will walk back down the Baltoro glacier to Askole.

We believe our itinerary maximises our chances of crossing the pass because:

- everyone should be well acclimatised due to the gradual ascent on the trek and also from the careful monitoring of everyone’s acclimatisation by using the pulse oximeter.

- we have three nights at Concordia (many of tour operators only allow two nights) and we also include a spare day on Day 18. This gives more flexibility in case of bad weather or poor conditions.
The set up and organisation of the trek also increases our chances:

- we bring a climbing rope so that the group can rope up to cross the glacier to the base of the pass. Usually this is not required as the crevasses are open but a snowfall could easily cover them up.

- we also bring fixed rope, ice screws and snow stakes to fix extra sections of the pass if required. In the past the western leader has gone ahead to Ali Camp on the group’s rest day at Concordia to check the condition of the ropes and where necessary to fix extra rope. We also donated 200m of rope and anchors to the Hushe Rescue team for their future use.

- we plan to obtain weather forecasts by SMS text direct to the satellite phone (to be confirmed).

Day 18. Buffer day at Khuspang.
In case of bad weather on Day 17, this will give us another chance to cross the pass. If we successfully got over the pass on Day 17, you may well enjoy a rest day or the other option is to continue down to Hushe to spend a night. Overnight camping (B,L,D).

Day 19. Khuspang to Shaisho– 6 to 7 hours walking.
After a couple of minutes of easy walking we get onto the glacier where we pick our way across the moraine and ice, finally crossing the glacier up to the camping site to reach Dalsangpa which means 'field of flowers'. There is a spectacular view of Masherbrum and the glacier cascading down from Masherbrum Pass.

It is a beautiful walk to Shaisho as we pass yak pastures and see the first trees since Paiju. Shaisho is a small village and has a shop run by a friendly local who has worked as a High Altitude Porter on a K2 expedition. Overnight camping (B,L,D).

Day 20. Trek to Hushe, drive to Skardu– 2 hours walking, 7 hours driving.
An easy day walking to the village of Hushe and then a beautiful drive through villages to Skardu. Overnight at K2 Motel in Skardu (B,L,D).
We will hopefully take the early morning flight to Islamabad (inshallah!), if unable to fly we will drive the KKH to Chilas. Overnight at Chancery Guesthouse in Islamabad (B) or Shangri La in Chilas (B,L,D).

Day 22. Islamabad.
If driving down the KKH we will arrive in Islamabad late afternoon. If we managed to fly the day before then we will spend today sightseeing in Islamabad. In the evening we will have a final group meal. Overnight at Chancery Guesthouse in Islamabad (B).

Day 23. Fly back home.
Transfer to Islamabad airport for the flight back home. End of trip.

PRACTICAL INFORMATION

ALTITUDE AND ACCLIMATISATION

Our K2 itinerary has been designed for gradual acclimatisation to take place, take a look at the altitude profile for the itinerary below:

![K2 and Gondogoro la trek altitude profile (metres)]

There are ways of helping the acclimatisation process, as described below:

- Walk slowly: there is plenty of time included in the itinerary so there is no need to rush, go at your own pace and enjoy the incredible views!
- Drinks lots of water: it is easier for your body to acclimatise when hydrated so drink water and avoid coffee, tea and alcohol.
- Consider taking diamox (acetazolamide): before using this drug we recommend consulting a doctor and thoroughly researching the pros and cons.
For further information we suggest you take a look at the following websites:

BMC website:

COMMUNICATIONS

We bring a Thuraya satellite phone for logistical, safety and personal use. Personal calls charged at £3 (US$5) per minute and £2 (US$3) to send and receive SMS text.

ACCOMMODATION IN ISLAMABAD & SKARDU

In Islamabad we use a private guest house, the facilities are similar to a  three star hotel however has a lower profile and better security than larger hotels in Islamabad.

In Skardu we stay at the K2 Motel, this is the best place to stay with beautiful gardens overlooking the Indus River. It is a well-known hotel used by generations of expeditions to the Karakoram, we are bound to meet other trekking and expedition groups here.

A TYPICAL DAY ON TREK

The day starts with an early morning mug of tea brought to your tent by one of the cook’s helpers. Before heading over to the mess tent for breakfast it is best to pack your overnight gear into your duffel bag. During breakfast the tents will be packed away and, after the porters have arranged their loads, they will set off on the trail in the cool of the morning.

After breakfast, probably between 7am and 8am, we start walking. The pace of the trek is leisurely with plenty of time to enjoy the scenery, take photos and explore the local villages. Lunch will be around 11am at a spot by the side of the trail and is prepared for us by the cooks.

There is more walking after lunch and normally you will get into camp by mid-afternoon with the tents already put up by the local staff. In the evening a three course meal is served in the mess tent around 7pm. After supper the western leader will discuss the plan for the next day with the group. People might stay in the mess tent chatting about the day’s events for a while before retiring to their tent for the night.

FOOD

In Islamabad there is a wide range of excellent restaurants to try out, some of the more popular ones are: Kabul Restaurant, Larosh Restaurant in Committee Chowk for good Pakistani food and Omar Khayam for Iranian food. Breakfast is provided each morning by the hotel.

While on the trek you will get breakfast with porridge and cereal, toast or chapattis, omelettes and a range of hot drinks. Normally a hot lunch is prepared by the trek crew or on the longer days a pack lunch is provided after breakfast. On arrival at the camp in the afternoon you will be given tea and biscuits and a three course meal will follow with soup, a main meal and dessert.

We bring along fresh vegetables and meat (chickens and a goat) for the main meals. We also provide a supply of chocolate bars, Pringles, biscuit and nuts.
CLIMATE

The traditional trekking season in Pakistan is June to September. K2 and Gondogoro La trek will have a wide range of temperatures depending on the altitude and the time of day.

In the mountains between 1,000m and 3,500m the nights will be cool normally around 5°C. During the day temperatures can be very hot even as high as 40°C in the lower elevations. Bring lots of water, sunhat and sunscreen!

At higher altitudes temperatures range from about 20°C to –10°C. The mornings are generally clear with clouds building up during the afternoon and often disappearing at night to reveal beautiful starry nights.

Rawalpindi will be hot and humid at this time of year, temperatures typically range from 30°C to 46°C with high humidity, whereas the temperatures in Skardu at 2,340m will be cooler.

CLOTHING AND EQUIPMENT

A list of suggested clothing and equipment for the K2 and Gondogoro La trek has been included in the Appendix below. This is a comprehensive list and experienced trekkers will often take only a selection of these items based on what has worked in the past. It is worth pointing out that you will need a sleeping bag for this trip.

If you do not have the clothing and equipment contained in this list then a good option might be to rent from the UK. Trek Hire is a company that rents out high quality items at competitive prices which would save you the expense of buying. The link to their website is http://www.trekhireuk.com/

Alternatively if you are going to buy then please contact the office for the Cotswold Outdoor promo code that entitles you, as a client of The Mountain Company, to 15% reduction in their stores and online.

Trekkers should bring all their gear in one large duffel bag and a backpack (40 to 50 litres). Each day you will carry your pack containing items that you might need while trekking such as warm clothes, jacket, camera, water bottle, personal first aid kit and some snacks (and crampons and ice axe on the Gondogoro La day).

The rest of your personal equipment, contained in your duffel bag, will be carried by a porter. The maximum weight allowance is 18kgs. Please ensure that your bag is marked clearly on the outside for easy identification.

VISA REQUIREMENTS

Citizens from the UK, US, Canada, Australia and New Zealand require an entry visa, it is your responsibility to obtain the entry visa. For the latest visa situation, please look at the Pakistan High Commission website at http://www.pakmission-uk.gov.pk

We require the following personal information in order to process the trekking permit:

- Passport details: name, nationality, passport number, date & place of issue & expiry date
• Home address
• Profession
• Two passport photographs

VACCINATIONS AND MEDICAL

You should obtain professional advice from a travel clinic or your local GP about which vaccinations to have before you arrive in Pakistan. A dental check-up is a good idea as there will be no dental facilities while on the trek.

We bring along a comprehensive first aid kit on this trek. See Appendix IV for the contents of The Mountain Company’s group first aid kit.

INSURANCE

Travel insurance for any Mountain Company itinerary is a condition of booking a holiday. At the very least you should have emergency medical and repatriation insurance which must include the cost of mountain rescue. Cancellation insurance is strongly recommended as all deposits paid to The Mountain Company are non-refundable.

CULTURAL CONSIDERATIONS

For those of you who are visiting Pakistan for the first time we have provided some cultural information to help you fit into the country:

• dress code is important for both men and women and even while trekking you should wear conservative dress. Wear loose, long-sleeved, non-revealing shirts and full length pants that cover your ankles. A shalmar kamiz, a traditional long shirt and baggy trousers, can be bought cheaply in Rawalpindi and generally makes locals feel more comfortable around you as it is a visible sign of your interest and respect for their culture. Women should bring a scarf to cover their heads especially in mosques or private homes.

• Pakistani society is a strongly patriarchal and only partly because it is Islamic, women are meant to be mothers and housekeepers and typically spend most of their time at home. When they do go out they are normally veiled from head to toe in the burqa, although in the main cities some wear just a scarf covering their hair and chest.

• Muslims consider the left hand to be unclean, therefore do not eat food with your left hand and make sure you give/receive food only with your right hand.

• do not bring any products made from pork into Pakistan.

• most Pakistanis are extremely hospitable and you could be invited to someone's house (often the cook or one of the porters), it is best to remove your shoes when you enter a private house.
• handshakes are common place among Pakistani men and some older men put their hand over their ear when shaking hands. Do not offer a handshake to the opposite sex as it will put them in an awkward position, it is generally best to let them make the first move.

• never point the sole of your shoe or foot at anyone and never step over any part of someone’s body.
